

Nebraska Methodist College Holds Summer Graduation Ceremonies

Omaha, Neb. – Nebraska Methodist College (NMC) welcomed its latest line of nursing and allied health graduates at summer commencement ceremonies held at St. Andrew's United Methodist Church Aug.

Students at the undergraduate and graduate levels walked on stage to receive their certificates and diplomas. The ceremony honored the accomplishments of the 120 nursing and allied health graduates, including the 23 members of the first class to graduate from NMC's Master of Occupational Therapy program.

"We are very proud of our graduates and the many achievements attained along their journey from students to healthcare professionals truly committed to making a difference in the lives of people in their most vulnerable times," said Dr. Deb Carlson, president and CEO of Nebraska Methodist College. "Our graduates are taking the next step forward as educated citizens, equipped with the skillset, mindset and heartset to be outstanding healthcare providers and leaders."
